More Than Q

Kid Friendly Menu Items: More Than Q's menu is chock full of barbeque dishes that are sure to please everyone in the family. For kids who don't want to take on a whole pulled pork sandwich or side of brisket, More Than Q makes one heck of a bowl of mac & cheese $4, as well as pork, beef or sausage sliders $5.

Dietary Options: Gluten free options available.

Chocodiem

Kid Friendly Menu Items: EPM's resident chocolate maker crafts their unique sweets on-site, offering a variety of chocolate goodness which appeals to every age group. Chocodiem's first menu item just for kids was rolled out recently --bottle of local farm fresh chocolate milk with your choice of either a macaron, truffle or kid-sized brownie for $5.25

Dietary Options: Vegan, vegetarian, gluten free, and lactose free options.

Scratch

Kid Friendly Menu Items: Who doesn't like pizza? Scratch lives up to its name and sells an array of delicious artisanal pizzas. For kids, or just the less hungry, they offer half pies starting at $6.

Dietary Options: Vegan and vegetarian options.

Barred and Broody

Kid Friendly Menu Items: Barred and Broody's baked goods are second to none, with a wide array of sweet and savory pastries, pies, brownies, cookies and other treats. Their most recent menu offering is "Cookies by the Pound" individual cookies sold at $11.99/lb: usually that translates into a dollar for two cookies. Flavors include: Chocolate Chip, chocolate chip butterscotch, dark chocolate crinkle, Barred and Broody compost, oatmeal raisin, snickerdoodle, and honey pecan.
